General Instructions

Future Developments

For the latest information about developments related to Form W-4, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4.

Purpose of Form

Complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold the correct federal income tax from your pay. If too little is withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty. If too much is withheld, you will generally be due a refund. Complete a new Form W-4 when changes to your personal or financial situation would change the entries on the form. For more information on withholding and when you must furnish a new Form W-4, see Pub. 505.

Exemption from withholding. You may claim exemption from withholding for 2020 if you meet both of the following conditions: you had no federal income tax liability in 2019 and you expect to have no federal income tax liability in 2020. You had no federal income tax liability in 2019 if (1) your total tax on line 16 on your 2019 Form 1040 or 1040-SR is zero (or less than the sum of lines 18a, 18b, and 18c), or (2) you were not required to file a return because your income was below the filing threshold for your correct filing status. If you claim exemption, you will have no income tax withheld from your paycheck and may owe taxes and penalties when you file your 2020 tax return. To claim exemption from withholding, certify that you meet both of the conditions above by writing "Exempt" on Form W-4 in the space below Step 4(c). Then, complete Steps 1(a), 1(b), and 5. Do not complete any other steps. You will need to submit a new Form W-4 by February 16, 2021.

Your privacy. If you prefer to limit information provided in Steps 2 through 4, use the online estimator, which will also increase accuracy.

As an alternative to the estimator: if you have concerns with Step 2(c), you may choose Step 2(b); if you have concerns with Step 4(a), you may enter an additional amount you want withheld per pay period in Step 4(c). If this is the only job in your household, you may instead check the box in Step 2(c), which will increase your withholding and significantly reduce your paycheck (often by thousands of dollars over the year).

When to use the estimator. Consider using the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App if you:

1. Expect to work only part of the year;
2. Have dividend or capital gain income, or are subject to additional taxes, such as the additional Medicare tax;
3. Have self-employment income (see below); or
4. Prefer the most accurate withholding for multiple job situations.

Self-employment. Generally, you will owe both income and self-employment taxes on any self-employment income you receive separate from the wages you receive as an employee. If you want to pay these taxes through withholding from your wages, use the estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App to figure the amount to have withheld.

Nonresident alien. If you're a nonresident alien, see Notice 1392, Supplemental Form W-4 Instructions for Nonresident Aliens, before completing this form.

Specific Instructions

Step 1(c). Check your anticipated filing status. This will determine the standard deduction and tax rates used to compute your withholding.

Step 2. Use this step if you (1) have more than one job at the same time, or (2) are married filing jointly and you and your spouse both work.

Option (a) most accurately calculates the additional tax you need to have withheld, while option (b) does so with a little less accuracy.

If you (and your spouse) have a total of only two jobs, you may instead check the box in option (c). The box must also be checked on the Form W-4 for the other job. If the box is checked, the standard deduction and tax brackets will be cut in half for each job to calculate withholding. This option is roughly accurate for jobs with similar pay; otherwise, more tax than necessary may be withheld, and this extra amount will be larger the greater the difference in pay is between the two jobs.

Multiple jobs. Complete Steps 3 through 4(b) on only one Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you do this on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Step 3. Step 3 of Form W-4 provides instructions for determining the amount of the child tax credit and the credit for other dependents that you may be able to claim when you file your tax return. To qualify for the child tax credit, the child must be under age 17 as of December 31, must be your dependent who generally lives with you for more than half the year, and must have the required social security number. You may be able to claim a credit for other dependents for whom a child tax credit can't be claimed, such as an older child or a qualifying relative. For additional eligibility requirements for these credits, see Pub. 972, Child Tax Credit and Credit for Other Dependents. You can also include other tax credits in this step, such as education tax credits and the foreign tax credit. To do so, add an estimate of the amount for the year to your credits for dependents and enter the total amount in Step 3. Including these credits will increase your paycheck and reduce the amount of any refund you may receive when you file your tax return.

Step 4 (optional).

Step 4(a). Enter in this step the total of your other estimated income for the year, if any. You shouldn't include income from any jobs or self-employment. If you complete Step 4(a), you likely won't have to make estimated tax payments for that income. If you prefer to pay estimated tax rather than having tax on other income withheld from your paycheck, see Form 1040-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals.

Step 4(b). Enter in this step the amount from the Deductions Worksheet, line 5, if you expect to claim deductions other than the basic standard deduction on your 2020 tax return and want to reduce your withholding to account for these deductions. This includes both itemized deductions and other deductions such as for student loan interest and IRAs.

Step 4(c). Enter in this step any additional tax you want withheld from your pay each pay period, including any amounts from the Multiple Jobs Worksheet, line 4. Entering an amount here will reduce your paycheck and will either increase your refund or reduce any amount of tax that you owe.

Step 2(b) – Multiple Jobs Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

If you choose the option in Step 2(b) on Form W-4, complete this worksheet (which calculates the total extra tax for all jobs) on only ONE Form W-4. Withholding will be most accurate if you complete the worksheet and enter the result on the Form W-4 for the highest paying job.

Note: If more than one job has annual wages of more than $120,000 or there are more than three jobs, see Pub. 505 for additional tables; or, you can use the online withholding estimator at www.irs.gov/W4App.

- 1 Two jobs. If you have two jobs or you're married filing jointly and you and your spouse each have one job, find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4. Using the "Higher Paying Job" row and the "Lower Paying Job" column, find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 1. Then, skip to line 3 2 Three jobs. If you and/or your spouse have three jobs at the same time, complete lines 2a, 2b, and 2c below. Otherwise, skip to line 3.
a Find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 using the annual wages from the highest paying job in the "Higher Paying Job" row and the annual wages for your next highest paying job in the "Lower Paying Job" column. Find the value at the intersection of the two household salaries and enter that value on line 2a
b Add the annual wages of the two highest paying jobs from line 2a together and use the total as the wages in the "Higher Paying Job" row and use the annual wages for your third job in the "Lower Paying Job" column to find the amount from the appropriate table on page 4 and enter this amount on line 2b
c Add the amounts from lines 2a and 2b and enter the result on line 2c
3 Enter the number of pay periods per year for the highest paying job. For example, if that job pays weekly, enter 52; if it pays every other week, enter 26; if it pays monthly, enter 12, etc.
4 Divide the annual amount on line 1 or line 2c by the number of pay periods on line 3. Enter this amount here and in Step 4(c) of Form W-4 for the highest paying job (along with any other additional amount you want withheld)

Step 4(b) – Deductions Worksheet (Keep for your records.)

- 1 Enter an estimate of your 2020 itemized deductions (from Schedule A (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). Such deductions may include qualifying home mortgage interest, charitable contributions, state and local taxes (up to $10,000), and medical expenses in excess of 7.5% of your income
2 Enter: { $24,800 if you're married filing jointly or qualifying widow(er); $18,650 if you're head of household; $12,400 if you're single or married filing separately }
3 If line 1 is greater than line 2, subtract line 2 from line 1. If line 2 is greater than line 1, enter "-0-"
4 Enter an estimate of your student loan interest, deductible IRA contributions, and certain other adjustments (from Part II of Schedule 1 (Form 1040 or 1040-SR)). See Pub. 505 for more information
5 Add lines 3 and 4. Enter the result here and in Step 4(b) of Form W-4

Employee Instructions

Due to changes in federal tax laws, the current federal Form W-4 should not be used for the calculation of Montana income tax withholding.

This new Form MW-4 replaces the federal form for Montana employees.

Employees who already claimed allowances in previous years do not have to submit this form unless they are claiming an exemption from withholding in Section 2.

Should I complete Form MW-4?

Complete Form MW-4 and provide to your employer, if you:

- are a newly hired employee, or
- claim to be exempt from Montana income tax withholding. See Section 2 instructions.

Consider completing a new Form MW-4 if your personal or financial situation changes. If you have not had sufficient income tax withheld from your wages, interest and/or penalties may be assessed when you file your individual income tax return.

Section 1: Montana Allowances

Complete this section to determine the number of withholding allowances to claim. Withholding on your wages is required unless you can claim an exemption from Montana withholding. See Section 2 instructions.

C. Spouse – If you are married and planning to file your Montana income tax return jointly with your spouse, add an allowance to reduce the amount of withholding.

In general, employees with a working spouse file their Montana return separately to lower their tax liability. If you are planning to file separately, enter zero on this line.

E. Head of household. – Generally, you can claim head of household filing status on your tax return only if you are unmarried and pay more than 50 percent of the cost of keeping up a home for yourself and your dependent(s) or other qualifying individuals.

F. Itemized deductions. – If your income mainly consists of wages or pensions, and you expect to report large itemized deductions, you may consider adding an additional allowance. Adding an allowance will reduce the amount of tax withheld. Caution: If you do not withhold enough to cover your income tax obligation, you may owe taxes and interest when you file your return. See Montana Publication 1 for more information.

H. Additional amount withheld. – You may request to have an additional amount of taxes withheld from your paycheck on Line H. If you have a large amount of nonwage income, such as interest or dividends, consider making estimated tax payments.

If you receive pensions or annuities, you may ask the payer to withhold a flat amount that you report on this line.

Section 2: Exemption from Montana Withholding

You must meet one of the following requirements to claim exemption:

- a. You are an enrolled member of an American Indian tribe living and working on the reservation of which you are an enrolled member. You must also complete Section 1 because your exemption may not cover all the wages you earned in Montana.
- b. You are a member of the Montana National Guard and are receiving pay or for active duty in the U.S. military under USC Title 10 orders. You must also complete Section 1 because your exemption only applies to your pay derived from your USC Title 10 orders.
- c. Your wages are exempt from withholding because you are a resident of North Dakota. This exemption is available for residents of North Dakota because of the reciprocity agreement in place between North Dakota and Montana.
- d. You are the spouse of a military member assigned to duty in Montana, you and your spouse are domiciled in another state (the same state as one another) and you are present in Montana solely to be with your spouse.

To claim an exemption, give this form to your employer upon the start of your employment, or as soon as you qualify for an exemption. If it remains applicable, your exemption needs to be renewed before the beginning of the next year. Provide a new Form MW-4 to your employer each year or your employer will begin withholding. Do not forget to indicate the year.

Montana does not recognize the federal exempt status available on the federal Form W-4. Therefore, exemption from withholding for federal purposes does not exempt you from Montana income tax withholding.

An exemption from withholding is available only if the entire statement you checked in Section 2 is true. If your situation changes, and your exemption is no longer valid, you must provide a new Form MW-4 to your employer with Section 1 completed.

If you claim one of the exemptions from withholding, an electronic copy of this form will be filed by your employer with the Department of Revenue.

An exemption from withholding is not an automatic exemption from filing a Montana income tax return.

See Montana Individual Income Tax Return (Form 2) instructions for more guidance.

Employer instructions are on the next page.

Employer Instructions

Montana wage withholding is required when wages are earned in Montana. Employers are liable for Montana withholding taxes and are only relieved of that liability once they have withheld the correct amount of taxes from the employees' wages for a given pay period.

Should my employee complete Form MW-4?

Your employee must complete Form MW-4 if one or both of the following applies:

- They are a newly hired employee, or
- They are claiming to be exempt from Montana income tax withholding. See Section 2 instructions.

Employees should also consider completing a new Form MW-4 if their personal or financial situation changes.

Your employee is not required to complete Form MW-4 if they are already employed and are not claiming exemption from Montana income tax withholding.

Do I need to file Form MW-4 with the department?

You must file your employee's Form MW-4 with the Department of Revenue only if one or both of the following applies:

- The employee is claiming more than 10 allowances, or
- The employee is claiming one of the withholding exemptions listed in Section 2.

If an employee provides you with a Form MW-4 that meets one or both of the conditions above, you must submit this form to the department by the last day of the payroll period in which the form was received.

File online using the department's TransAction Portal (TAP) at <https://tap.dor.mt.gov>. Simply click on "File Form MW-4." For more information about this process, visit revenue.mt.gov.

Do not mail the Form MW-4 to the department.

You should keep a copy of all Forms MW-4 you receive from your employees with your records.

How should I determine Montana withholding for an employee that doesn't complete Form MW-4?

Withhold Montana tax as if the employee is single with zero withholding allowances.

Why must an employee complete Section 1 when claiming exemption 2(a) or 2(b)?

If an exemption is claimed under Section 2(a) or 2(b), you must withhold taxes on any wages paid that do not meet the requirements of these exemptions.

Example: If (a) is marked, the exemption does not apply to wages earned from an enrolled member of a tribe, residing on his or her reservation, when the work is performed outside the reservation. Withholding is required on the wages derived from work performed outside the reservation, based on the number of allowances reported in Section 1. If Section 1 was not completed, the withholding is calculated using zero allowances until a new Form MW-4 is provided for the calculation of the withholding.

Invalid Forms MW-4

The following situations make the Form MW-4 invalid:

- The form is incomplete or lacks the necessary signatures, or
- The employer information is incomplete when the Form MW-4 is filed with the department.

If, after a review of the Form MW-4, the department revises the number of allowances allowed for the employee or disallows an exemption claimed, you must withhold based on that determination for the remainder of the calendar year, unless:

- The employee subsequently files a new Form MW-4 with fewer than 11 allowances, or
- The department changes its initial determination based on justifications provided by the employee.
